The key to learning new vocabulary doesn't lie in reviewing rote lists, sad to say. The research is clear: for new vocabulary to stick, kids need to connect new words to their world. Play this guess the word game to ensure that new vocabulary words "stick" in the mind of your youngster. Fill the jar with the items of your choice, but don't mix items. For example, if you use grapes, don't put anything besides grapes inside the jar. Sit down with your child and write down an estimate. For the first estimation, just let him guess without much guidance from you. Count out the items ... Just a few days ago, I was racking my brains trying to figure out just what my kiddos would do on the last day of school. I read my kiddos Sideways Stories From Wayside School earlier in the year and planned to show the Nickelodeon cartoon movie while I was passing out Student Council awards at the big kids' awards ceremony, but that was about it. Synopsis: Darwin is hiding something behind his back. Can you guess what it is? Darwin has a clue that can help you out... Back to Guess What I am Hiding Game Back to the Magical world of the Alphabet
