

Download International Construction Contract Law

Construction law is a branch of law that deals with matters relating to building construction, engineering, and related fields. It is in essence an amalgam of contract law, commercial law, planning law, employment law and tort. Construction law covers a wide range of legal issues including contract, negligence, bonds and bonding, guarantees and sureties, liens and other security interests ... Our construction legal practice has broad experience in advising clients on all aspects of international engineering, procurement and construction projects. This website is intended to encourage discussion about recent developments in construction law in Canada. The commentary in this website will relate to legislation and case law. What is Contracts Law? The concept of a contract dates back to ancient times. However, the modern rules regarding the formation and interpretation of contract is largely derived from the common law legal system.